PURITA KALAW-LEDESMA PRIZES IN ART CRITICISM

AWARDS

about the prizes

As one of the main goals of the prize is to get art criticism into the public sphere, winning writers are given the opportunity to be contributors to a national newspaper and an international art magazine. The winner of the Purita Kalaw-Ledesma Prize for The Philippine Star will be awarded a regular column to be published twice a month or 24 articles for a year, under the column "Platforms" in the Arts & Culture section of the paper. The winner of the Purita Kalaw-Ledesma Prize for ArtAsiaPacific Magazine will be contributing to this bi-monthly publication, with a total of six articles for a year. In addition, the two winners of the Ateneo Art Awards – PKL Prizes in Art Criticism will contribute to Perro Berde, an annual art and culture publication of the Embassy of Spain and Instituto Cervantes.

A panel of jurors will shortlist a maximum of six (6) writers from the submitted entries. From this list, two (2) winners will be chosen by the editors of the partner publications—The Philippine Star and ArtAsiaPacific. Winners will be announced during the Ateneo Art Awards ceremony tentatively scheduled for 25 August 2019 at the Ateneo Art Gallery, Soledad V Pangilinan Arts Wing, Areté, Ateneo de Manila University.
